Hamburg-American Cruise South America

THIS WINTER Land of Opportunity For Business or Pleasure Grand Cruise by S. S. "Bluecher" 12,500 tons, from New York, January 21, 1911, for the East Coast of South America, through the Straits of Magellan and up the West Coast of Valparaiso, The Itinerary will include the following ports: Bridgetows (Barbados), Pernambuco (Brazil), Santos (Brazil), Montevideo (Uruguay), Punta Arenas (Chile), Coronal (Chile), Valparaise (Chile), optional trips across the Andes, Buenos Aires (Argentine), Rio de Janeiro (Brazil), Bahia (Brazil), Para (Brazil).

> Duration of trip 74 days Cost from $350 up

Port of Spain (Trinidad), St. Thomas (West Indies), and thence

Consul Manning, of Venesuela, in a recent address, said: "I have suggested in various reports the desirability of visits of North Amer ican business men to South America. The average South American feels that he and his country are little understood by his North American neighbors, because so few of our people ever go there. From this apparent aloofress have arisen such suspicions of the United States as may exist among our Southern neighbors. A wonderful opportunity for studying local conditions and acquiring commercial information in Brasil, Argentine and Chile, etc., is here offered business men, in connection with a high-class pleasure cruise."
